

The important thing about RE is that we learn how to live a good life.

RE helps us learn about Christianity and other faiths, religions and cultures.

It allows us to learn from holy books.

It helps us to respect differences between different religions.

There are big questions asked.

We use other curriculum areas like art to explore RE.

It allows us to express ourselves confidently.

But the important thing about RE is that we learn how to live a good life.